CANADA SOCIAL REPORT

The Caledon Institute of Social Policy regularly scans provincial and territorial government websites in order to follow policy and program developments related to our core work and interests. A partial list includes: disability, education, health, housing, income security, poverty reduction, recreation, seniors and youth. This tracking is intended to inform our analysis of policy trends. Monitors can be searched on the Canada Social Report website by date, jurisdiction and category.

Newfoundland and Labrador

INCOME SECURITY

July 1, 2010, the provincial minimum wage will increase by 50 cents to $10.00 per hour. The increase represents the final step of the Provincial Government's 2007 Blueprint commitment of achieving a minimum wage of $10 per hour by 2010.

Budget 2010 tax measures came into effect on July 1, 2010:

- provincial personal income tax rate on income between $31,278 and $62,556 was lowered to 12.5 percent (from 12.8 percent)
- tax rate for the top income tax bracket (more than $62,556) will decrease to 13.3 percent (from 15.5 percent)
- Dividend Tax Credit rate on eligible dividends will increase to 11 percent, making the province more competitive in this area and encouraging investment activity
- Non-refundable Age Amount tax credit for individuals aged 65 years or older increases from $3,681 to $5,000. The income level at which taxpayers become eligible for the credit moves from $51,940 to $60,733. Those who claim the Age Amount will receive a benefit of up to $102 through a reduction in their provincial tax payable.
- The maximum amount under the Low-Income Seniors' Benefit Program will increase from $803 to $900, providing up to an additional $97 for eligible seniors
- The Low-Income Seniors' Benefit is available to seniors with a family net income under $33,884 (42,500 seniors will be eligible). The maximum amount under the Low-Income Seniors' Benefit Program will increase from $803 to $900, providing up to $97 for eligible seniors. The Low-Income Seniors' Benefit is available to seniors with a family net income under $33,884. Approximately 42,500 seniors in Newfoundland and Labrador will be eligible for this increase.

Saskatchewan

DISABILITIES

The Program Implementation Advisory Team for the Saskatchewan Assured Income for Disability (SAID) program has been renewed for a second one-year term to June 30, 2011. SAID was launched last fall so that people with significant, long-term disabilities no longer have to rely on social assistance. More than 2,600 Saskatchewan people are currently enrolled in SAID. The Ministry of Social Services is developing options for the next steps of the program with the help of the Advisory Team.

HEALTH

Expanded prescribing authority for Saskatchewan pharmacists. Amendments to the Pharmacy Act will authorize pharmacists to provide services such as extending refills during a physician's absence and providing emergency supplies of prescribed medications. This enhanced prescribing authority sets the foundation for future expansion; in collaboration with physicians, pharmacists who acquire additional training, will have the authority to alter dosages or formulas, or prescribe certain medications for minor ailments.
